The Belly Dancer

By: Stephan Chittenden

There she stood,
There she danced,
Where her hips and veil swayed with the wind,
Sword at her side,
Scabbard near her pants,
Her arms moving up and down,
Her chest moving forward and back,
Side to side,
Across the desert sands,
In a magic land,
She danced like a Jinni,
She danced like the breeze,
Under the moonlit sky,
On the sand,
Or on a carpet in the clouds,
She brings her dance wherever she goes.
